Family counselling

Counselling for couples, families and single persons with relationship problems

It might be like this:

- You find it difficult to talk to each other
- Your feelings have changed
- Your physical relationship has changed
- You have questions about divorce and separation
- You have difficulties getting the new family to function
- You have conflicts with relatives

Conversation gives opportunities:

- To listen and talk to each other in a better way
- To understand and accept oneself and each other

The family counsellor has a degree in social work with additional training in psychotherapy specializing in coexistence

We have especially strict rules regarding confidentiality and you can remain anonymous.

A visit to Family counselling costs 300 kr for families/couples and 200 kronor for one person.

We work with an interpreter when necessary.
